Subject Index

Acceptance:
  contract completion, 481–482
  specifying and contracting, 476–477
Accessibility standards, codes and standards, 456 Accuracy, elevator operation and control, computer technology, 132
Ac variable voltage (ACVV) systems, machine room ventilation
  requirements, 205
Aircraft carrier elevator, 413–414, 415 Alterations and changes, specifying and contracting, 480–481
American Institute of Architects (AIA), 451
American National Standards Institute (ANSI), testing standards, 457. See also Codes and standards
American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), 173, 457. See also Codes and standards
Americans with Disabilities Act, 26, 240, 456, 460. See also Disabilities
Ames, Nathan, 220
Apartment houses, 288–294. See also Residential building elevating calculations, 291–294
  door arrangement, 39
  elevator capacity, 289–290
  elevator traffic period, building elevating, 34
  garages, 291
  multipurpose buildings, nonconventional elevators, 354–357
  occupancy, 288–289
  senior citizen housing, 295–296
Approvals, specifying and contracting, 478 Architectural standards, 457 Architecture, unique arrangements, 57–58 Arrangements, 50, 52–61
  economics, 487–493
  escalator, 492–493
  full rise vs. low rise, high rise systems, 487–492
  shuttle elevator, 492
  variations, 487
  eight-car groupings, 55–57
  escalators, 227–229
  four-car groupings, 54 front and rear entrances, 58–61
  generally, 50, 52
  six-car groupings, 54–55 three-car groupings, 53–54 two-car groupings, 52–53 unique arrangements, 57–58 Artificial intelligence, elevator operation and control, 131, 160–166
ASME, see Codes and standards ASTM, see American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM)
Automated cart lifts, 435–437
Automated guided vehicle (AGV) system, 443
Automated material-handling systems, 419–450. See also Dumbwaiters and materials-handling systems automated guided vehicle (AGV) system, 443 cart lifts, 435–437
  economics of, 445–450 electric "car on track" conveyor system, 424–428
  pallet lifts, 443–444
  pneumatic tube systems, 421–424 public buildings, 421 selective vertical conveyor (SVC), 424–428, 434
  technology, 419
tote box lifts, 434–435
track systems, 437–443
  in-floor, 438–443
  overhead, 437–438
Automated people movers, future trends, 537–539
Automatic operation, operation systems, 149 Basement traction machine, space and physical requirements, 207, 208, 211–215
Bid preparation:
    proposal bidding, 475
    specifying and contracting, 471
Board for the Coordination of Model Codes (BCMC), 451
Bowser system, parking garage, 411
Building codes, 455–456
Building compression, nonconventional elevators, 390–392
Building elevating, 33–62. See also Elevating elevator traffic period, 33–34, 35
modernization, 63
pedestrian planning considerations, 34–45
    door arrangement, 37–39
    elevator platform shape, 34–37 lighting and signals, 39–45
    positioning of system, 45–61
    arrangements, 50–61
    grouping of elevators, 45–50 preliminary study, 33 space and physical requirements, 169. See also Space and physical requirements Building structure, elevator reactions, space and physical requirements, 191–192 Building sway, elevator damage and, 395–398
Cable-driven people movers, future trends, 537
Cafeterias, commercial buildings, 265–266
Campus office building, 272–273
Canadian codes and standards:
    listing of, 457–458
    specifying and contracting, 474
Capacity, see Elevator capacity Caporale, Robert S., 218 Car call buttons, pedestrian planning considerations, 40
Car dwell-time, transfer time, incoming traffic, 75
Car ride quality, 392–395
Car-switch operation, operation systems, 147–148
Cart lifts, 435–437
Changes and alterations, specifying and constructing, 480–481
Channeling, artificial intelligence, 163–165 Classroom buildings, 317–318. See also Institutional building elevating;
        Schools
Closed-loop control:
    door control, 143
    motion control, 136
Codes and standards, 451–469 accessibility standards, 456 ANSI/NFPA, 454
    architectural, engineering, and performance standards, 457
ASME A17.1:
    adoption of, 460–461
    commercial buildings, 258, 260 earthquake design, 402 elevator types, 26, 27
    escalators, 224, 225, 226, 235, 237
    freight elevator, 327, 328, 333, 342 moving walkways, 227, 235, 237 operation and control systems, 135, 143, 145, 155
    overview, 452–453
    private residences, 300–301
    shipboard elevator, 386
    space requirements, 180, 182, 186
    specifying and contracting, 473–474
ASME A17.2.1, overview, 453
ASME A17.2.2, overview, 453
ASME A17.2.3, overview, 453
ASME A17.3, freight elevator, 349
ASME A17.3, overview, 453
ASME A17.5, overview, 453
ASME A18.1, overview, 453
ASME A18.1, private residences, 301 ASME QE-1, overview, 453
building codes, 455–456 Canadian, 457–458
code adoption, 460–461
code coordination, 466–467
Comité Européen de Normalisation (CEN), 143, 458–459, 474
    conflict resolution, 462–466 enforcement conflicts, 461–462 European, 458–460
    future trends, 467–468
    history, 452
International Convention for Safety of Life at Sea (SOLAS), shipboard elevator, 386 International Standards Organization (ISO):
    car ride quality, 395
    shipboard elevator, 386
    locating of, 468
National Electrical Code, 188, 189, 406
NFPA publications, 454–455
    overview, 451–452
    safety, 44
    service and freight elevators, 327
specifying and contracting, 473–474
testing standards, 457
ventilation, 190
Collective operation, operation systems, 150–151
Comité Européen de Normalisation (CEN), see Codes and standards Commercial building elevatoring, 245–280 definition, 245
department stores, 273–274
garages, 275–278
industrial buildings, 279–280 layout and grouping, 253–254, 255–257 merchandise marts, 279
multipurpose buildings, nonconventional elevators, 354–357
office building, 266–273
campus office, 272–273
generally, 266–271
maximum elevator size, 271–272
rules of thumb, 271
operations, 258–266
cafeterias and restaurants, 265–266
generally, 258, 259–263
service elevator, 264–265 special requirements, 258, 260, 264 population, 245–248 professional buildings, 278–279 shopping malls, 274–275
traffic, 248–253
capacity and speed, 251–253
generally, 248–250
interval, 251
trading floors, 250–251 transfer floors, 254, 257–258 Complaint evaluation, traffic studies, 509 Computer technology:
artificial intelligence, elevator operation and control, 131, 160–166 elevator operation and control, overview, 129–135
future trends, 539–540
group automatic supervisory operation, 154–156
Construction, specifying and contracting, 477–478
Construction Specification Institute, 473
Construction tolerance, space and physical requirements, 174–180 Consultant:
maintenance and repair, 505
traffic studies, 507
Continuous-flow system, passenger traffic requirements, service requirements, 64 Contracts. See also Specifying and contracting completion and acceptance, specifying and contracting, 481–482 establishment, specifying and contracting, 475–476 maintenance and repair, guidelines for, 496 Conveyor system:
electric "car on track" conveyor system, 428–434
selective vertical conveyor (SVC), 424–428
warehouses, 345–346
Corner-post arrangement, space and physical requirements, 217 Costs, economics, 485–486. See also Economics Counterweight safety, space and physical requirements, layouts, 215–216 Courthouses. See also Institutional building elevatoring
occupancy, 305
Crisscross arrangement, escalators, 227–229
Crowding, passenger traffic requirements, service requirements, 63–64
Custom-design elevator, economics, 493–494
Delivery scheduling, specifying and contracting, 479
Department stores, commercial building elevatoring, 273–274 Disabilities:
car call buttons, 41, 45
escalator requirements, 240 grouping of elevators, arrangements, 52 handicapped lifts, described, 25–27, 28 transfer time, incoming traffic, 75
Donoghue, Edward A., 468–469
Door arrangement:
building elevatoring, modernization, 62
pedestrian planning considerations, 37–39
Door-closing time, transfer time, incoming traffic, 76
Door control, control systems, 143–146
Door-open button, car call buttons, 44
Door-opening time, transfer time, incoming traffic, 77 Doors:
freight elevator, 331–333
space and physical requirements, 173–174 Dormitories and residence halls, 295. See also Residential building elevating Double-deck elevator, 358–366 application, 365–366 buildings with, 363–364
calculations, 364–365
history, 359, 361–362
operation, 358–359
traffic, 362
Down traffic, during up-peak, incoming traffic, 94–95
Dumbwaiters and materials-handling systems.
See also Automated material-handling systems described, 23–25
history, 419
space and physical requirements, 215
Dwell-time, transfer time, incoming traffic, 75
Earthquake design, 402–403
Economics, 485–494
arrangements, 487–493
escalator, 492–493
full rise vs. low rise, high rise systems, 487–492
shuttle elevator, 492
variations, 487
of automated material-handling systems, 445–450 costs, 485–486
equipment selection, 493–494 return on investment, 486–487
Eight-car grouping, of elevators, 55–57
Electric “car on track” conveyor system, 428–434
Electric elevator, history of, 4 Elevator. See also Nonconventional elevator building compression and, 390–392 building sway and wind effects, 395–398 car ride, 392–395
earthquake design, 402–403
escalators versus, 239
flooding, 406
future trends, 527–541. See also Future trends maintenance and repair, 494–499. See also Maintenance and repair noise, 404–405
problem locations, 405–406 specifying and contracting, 471–484. See also Specifying and contracting stack effect, 398–401
Elevator capacity:
apartment houses, 289–290
commercial buildings, traffic, 251–252
freight elevator, 327–331
institutional building elevating, 322 selection, incoming traffic, 83–84, 85
space and physical requirements, 179–180
Elevating:
of building, 33–62. See also Building elevating commercial buildings, 245–280. See also Commercial building elevating dumbwaiters and materials-handling systems, 23–25 handicapped lifts, 25–27, 28 institutional buildings, 303–326. See also Institutional building elevating modernization, 30–31
nonconventional elevators, 353–417. See also Nonconventional elevators residential buildings, 281–302. See also Residential building elevating study of, 27, 29–30 Elevating history, 1–23 escalators and moving walks, 18, 21–23 gearless traction elevator, 12–18
gearless traction elevator, 9–12 hydraulic elevator, 3–5, 18, 19–20 origins, 1 safety devices, 1–3 systems, 5
traction elevator, 5–9
Elevator operation and control, 129–167
computer technology, 129–135 artificial intelligence, 160–166
generally, 129–130
group dispatching, 130–131 intelligent dispatching, 131–132 report generation, 134 solid state technology, 132–133 system monitoring, 133–134 control systems, 135–147
door control, 143–146
expected running time, 141–143 leveling, 146–147
motion control, 135–141
future trends, 166–167
operation systems, 147–156 automatic operation, 149 car-switch operation, 147–148 collective operation, 150–151 group automatic operation, 152–154 group automatic supervisory operation, 154–156 signal operation, 149–150 special features, 159–160 traffic, adjustment to, 160 traffic definitions and operations, 156–159 contingencies, 158–159 intensities, 156–157
operational strategy, 157–158 Elevator platform size and shape:
building elevating, modernization, 62 elevator capacity selection, incoming
traffic, 83–84, 85
freight elevator, 327–331
hospitals, 312
office building, 271–272
pedestrian planning considerations, 34–37
space and physical requirements, 172–173 Elevator reactions, space and physical requirements, 191–192
Elevator traffic period, building elevating,
33–34, 35
Elevator-transit station, future trends, 534–535
Elevator trip, passenger traffic requirements, 63
Emergency evacuation, outgoing traffic, special operations, 126–127
Emergency lighting:
lighting and signals, 44
operation systems, contingencies, 152–153 Emergency operation, machine room space
requirements, 206
Enclosure, space and physical requirements, 172–173
Energy considerations:
emergency operation, power failure, 206 escalators and moving walkways, space requirements, 234–235
machine room space requirements, 192–202
Engineering standards, 457
Equipment evaluation, 524–525
Equipment selection, economics, 493–494
Equipment survey, maintenance and repair, 502–503
Escalators, 219–244
applications, 223–225, 243–244
arrangement and location, 227–229 calculation of requirements, 240–243 continuous-flow system, passenger traffic requirements, service requirements, 64 economics, 492–493
elevators versus, 239
features of, 235–237
future trends, 532–534
history and development of, 18, 21–23, 220–223
importance of, 219–220
institutional building elevating, 322 operation of, 237–238 outgoing traffic, special operations, 126 space requirements, 229–235
generally, 229–231
layouts, 231, 233–234
maintenance and energy considerations, 234–235
special applications, 238 traffic-handling ability, 225–227 European codes and standards, 458–460 Evaluation: of equipment, 524–525
of performance, 519–524
E. V. Haughwout & Company, 1 Exhibits. See also Institutional building elevating
elevating, 321–322
occupancy, 305
Expected running time, elevator operation and
control, 141–143
Failure analysis, elevator operation and control, 134
Fire:
hazardous facilities, 405–406
lighting and signals, 44
space and physical requirements, hoistways, 174
stack effect, 401
First in, first out (FIFO) system, electric “car on track” conveyor system, 424–428 Five-minute peak, time factor calculations, passenger traffic requirements, 65
Flexibility:
elevator operation and control, computer technology, 133
escalator arrangements, 227 Flextime:
commercial buildings, traffic, 249
elevator traffic period, building elevating, 34
Flooding, 406
Floor service, grouping of elevators, 47, 50
Four-car grouping, of elevators, 54 Freight elevator, 327–339. See also Service and freight elevators considerations, 348
design, 338–339
garages, 346–348
industrial plants, 342–345
institutional building elevating, 322 loading and unloading, 331–333
operation, 340–342
personnel on, 333–334
size and capacity, 327–331
space and physical requirements, 207, 210, 211 structural requirements, 334–338 unusual installations, 348–352 maintenance, 352
modernization, 351
use and misuse, 350–351 vintage equipment, 349–350
warehouses, 345–346
Front and rear entrances, arrangements, 58–61 Full-time employee equivalent (FTE), calculation of, 445–450
Full-trip probability, high call reversal and,
incoming traffic, 81–82
Funicular railway, 270
Future trends, 527–541
accelerating moving walks, 531–532 automated people movers, 537–539 cable-driven people movers, 537 elevator-transit station, 534–535 escalators, 532–534
overview, 527–528
people movers, 535–536
scissor jacks, 530
screw lifts, 529–530
skywalks, 536–537
technology, 539–540
tradition and, 528
water towers, 539
Fuzzy logic, elevator operation and control, computer technology, 131–132
Garage:
commercial building elevating, 275–278
freight elevator, 346–348 parking garage with horizontal carriage, 406–411
Garage floors, incoming traffic, elevator
operation, 93–94
Geared traction elevator:
history of, 12–18
motion control, 139
Gearless traction elevator:
history of, 9–12
motion control, 140
Gibson, George W., 416–417
Gilchrist, Wayne A., 450 Group automatic operation, operation systems, 152–154
Group automatic supervisory operation:
destination-based, artificial intelligence, 162–163
operation systems, 154–156 Group dispatching, elevator operation and control, computer technology, 130–131
Grouping. See also Positioning of system commercial buildings, 253–254, 255–257 eight-car grouping, 55–57 four-car grouping, 54
hospitals, 312–313
positioning of system, 45–50
residential buildings, 282–284 six-car grouping, 54–55 three–car grouping, 53–54 two–car grouping, 52–53
Halpern, Jon B., 116, 167
Hammurabi Code, 452
Handicapped lifts, described, 25–27, 28
Handling capacity, time factor calculations, passenger traffic requirements, 66–67
Hazardous facilities, 405–406
Heat, see Temperature
Heavy traffic:
elevator operation and control, 156
interfloor traffic, elevator operation during,
112–113
High- and low-rise elevators, incoming traffic, elevator operation, 92
High call reversal, full-trip probability and,
incoming traffic, 81–82
High-speed elevator, car ride quality, 392–395
Hoistways:
space and physical requirements, 173–174
ventilation, space and physical requirements, 188, 190–191
Horizontal carriage, parking garage with, nonconventional elevator, 406–411
Hospitals:
calculations, 313–316
door arrangement, 38
elevator traffic period, building elevating, 34 layout, 311–313
long-term care facilities, 316–317 occupancy, 303–305. See also Institutional building elevating outpatients, 313
positioning of system, 307
service elevator, 265
traffic, 308, 310–311, 323
two-way traffic, 97
Hotels:
generally, 284–285
inclined elevator, 381–386
sample, 285–288
two-way traffic, 97
waiting time, 281
Hydraulic elevator:
history of, 3–5, 18, 19–20
motion control, 139
space and physical requirements, 207, 208–209
Impatience, passenger traffic requirements, 63–64
Inclined elevator, 370–386
Luxor Pyramid Hotel, 381–386
overview, 370–375
Peace Tower (Ottawa, Canada), 375–381
Incoming traffic, 71–96
calculations, 79–81
short trips, 82–83
total incoming traffic, 80–81 down traffic during up-peak, 94–95 elevator capacity selection, 83–84, 85
elevator operation, 86–94 garage floors, 93–94
generally, 86–88
high- and low-rise elevators, 92 multiple-entrance floors, 93 problem solving, 88 spotting, 92
up-peak zoning, 88–91
elevator operation and control, 156–157 full-trip probability and high call reversal, 81–82
overview, 71–73
period interval calculation, 84, 86 running time, 77–79
transfer time, 73, 75–77
Industrial buildings:
commercial building elevating, 279–280
freight elevator, 342–345
Industrial-type elevator, 389–390
In-floor track systems, 438–443
Installation costs, economics, 485–486 Institutional building elevating, 303–326 courthouses, 319–320
defined, 303
hospitals, 308–316. See also Hospitals
calculations, 313–316
layout, 311–313
outpatients, 313
traffic, 308, 310–311
jails, 320–321
long-term care facilities, 316–317 museums, exhibits, sports arenas, and observation towers, 321–322
occupancy, 303–305
operation, 325–326
schools, universities, and colleges, 317–319. See also Schools traffic, 305–308, 322–325
Intelligent dispatching, elevator operation and control, 131–132 Interfloor traffic:
elevator operation during, 107–116
generally, 107–108
heavy traffic, 112–113
light traffic, 108
moderate traffic, 108–112
waiting time for landing calls, 113–116
two-way traffic, 97, 98–103
calculations, 100–103
calculation sample, 103–107
generally, 98
interval and waiting time, 99–100
International codes and standards, 458–460
International Convention for Safety of Life at Sea (SOLAS), 386 International Standards Organization (ISO).
See also Codes and standards
car ride quality, 395
codes and standards, 459–460
shipboard elevator, 386
Interval and waiting time. See also Waiting time commercial buildings, traffic, 251
positioning of system, grouping of elevators, 46–47 Interval and waiting time (cont'd) time factor calculations, passenger traffic
requirements, 66
two-way traffic, interfloor, 99–100

Jails. See also Institutional building elevating elevator, 320–321
occupancy, 305
Jefferson, Thomas, 419

Key switch, operation and control, special features, 159–160
Kitchens, hotels and motels, 285

Laboratory building, 305, 318. See also Institutional building elevating;
Schools
Landing call buttons:
arrangements, 57
pedestrian planning considerations, 40 Landing call dwell-time, transfer time, incoming traffic, 75
Layouts, see Positioning of system
LeVee, Leonard G., Jr., 506, 526
Leveling, elevator control systems, 146–147
Lewis, William S., 238
 Liability, maintenance and repair, 504–505 Libraries, 305, 318–319. See also Institutional building elevating; Schools Lifts, nonconventional elevators, 411–416 Lighting and signals, pedestrian planning considerations, 39–45
Light traffic:
elevator operation and control, 156
interfloor traffic, elevator operation during, 108 Limited use/limited application (LU/LA) elevator:
handicapped lifts, 26, 27 private residences, 301–302
Loading and unloading, freight elevator, 331–333, 343. See also Freight elevator
Loading time, defined, 27 Loads, elevator reactions, space and physical requirements, 191–192
Lobby:
office building, 271–272
positioning of system, 57–58 space and physical requirements, 169. See also Space and physical requirements
two-way traffic, 97
calculation sample, 104–106
Location, see Positioning of system Long-term care facilities, institutional building elevating, 316–317
Luxor Pyramid Hotel, 381–386
Machine room space requirements:
emergency operation, 206
energy considerations, 192–202
generally, 187–188
power failure, 202–203
ventilation, 203–206
Machine vision, artificial intelligence, 166 Maintenance and repair, 494–499. See also Modernization
consultant role, 505
equipment survey, 502–503 full maintenance, 494–495 guidelines for contracting, 496 lesser maintenance, 495 owner responsibility, 495 proposals for coverage, 496–499 safety and liability, 504–505 specifications, 503–504
Malls, commercial building elevating, 274–275
Manufacturers' standards, elevator reactions, 191–192
Medical buildings:
commercial building elevating, 278–279
service elevator, 265
Meeting rooms, hotels and motels, 284 Merchandise marts, commercial building
elevating, 279
Microprocessor, see Computer technology Mines, 387–389, 405
Moderate traffic:
elevator operation and control, 156
interfloor traffic, elevator operation during,
108–112
Modernization:
benefits of, 499–502
building elevating, 63
elevator, 30–31
rationale for, 499
space and physical requirements, 217–218
specifying and contracting, 482–483
Montesano, Joseph, 484
Motels, see Hotels Motion control, elevator operation and
control, 135–141
Moving floors, 413
Moving walkways. See also Escalators accelerating, future trends, 531–532
applications, 243–244
arrangement and location, 228 calculation of requirements, 240–243 capacities, 227
features of, 235–237
history and development of, 219
history of, 18, 21–23
space requirements, 229–235
generally, 229–231
layouts, 231, 233–234
maintenance and energy considerations, 234–235
special applications, 238
Multicar single hoistway, artificial intelligence, 165
Multiple-entrance floors, incoming traffic, elevator operation, 93
Multiple parallel arrangement, escalators, 227–229
Multipurpose buildings, nonconventional elevators, 354–357
Multi-stop elevator, passenger traffic requirements, time factor calculations, 67–68 Museums. See also Institutional building elevating elevatoring, 321–322
occupancy, 305
National Electrical Code, 406
National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) publications, codes and standards, 454–455 Negotiation, specifying and contracting, 475
New installation service, specifying and contracting, 477 Nighttime traffic, elevator operation and control, 157 Noise:
minimization of, 404–405
residential buildings, 284
space and physical requirements, 171–172 Nonconventional elevators, 353–417. See also Elevator aircraft carrier, 413–414, 415
applications, 353–354
double-deck elevator, 358–366. See also Double-deck elevator inclined elevator, 370–386. See also Inclined elevator industrial-type elevator, 389–390 mine elevator, 387–389
moving floors, 413
multipurpose buildings, 354–357 observation and outside elevators, 366–370 parking garage with horizontal carriage, 406–411
platform lifts, 414
problem locations, 405–406
rack and pinion elevator, 390 shipboard elevator, 386–387
sky lobby, 355, 357–358
stage lifts, 411–413
trailer truck elevator, 406–407 Nursing homes. See also Institutional building elevating long-term care facilities, 316–317
occupancy, 305
Observation elevator, nonconventional elevators, 366–370 Observation towers. See also Institutional building elevating elevatoring, 321–322
positioning of system, 307–308
Occupancy:
building elevatoring, preliminary study, 33 combined building elevatoring, 245–248 institutional buildings, 303–305
residential buildings, 281, 288–289 Office building, 266–273. See also Commercial building elevatoring campus office, 272–273
combined building elevatoring, 246 interest, 266–271
maximum elevator size, 271–272
multipurpose buildings, nonconventional elevators, 354–357
rules of thumb, 271
Off-street loading, freight elevator, garages, 346–348
Open-loop, motion control, 136
Operating time, defined, 30
Operational costs, economics, 486
Otis, Elisha Graves, 1
Otis Elevator Company, 4, 22, 152, 155, 157–158, 165, 221, 375, 381 Outgoing traffic, 117–127
calculations, 119–121
calculation sample, 121–125
elevator operation and control, 157
importance of, 117
Outgoing traffic (cont’d)
requirements, 117–119
special operations, 126–127 emergency evacuation, 126–127 nature of traffic, 126
Outpatients, hospitals, 313
Outside elevator, nonconventional elevators, 366–370
Overhead space requirements:
calculation of, 186–187
generally, 186
Overhead track systems, 437–438
Owner responsibility, maintenance and repair, 495

Pallet lifts, 443–444
Parallel arrangement, escalators, 227–229
Parking, hotels and motels, 284
Parking garage, with horizontal carriage,
nonconventional elevator, 406–411
Parliament Hill Peace Tower (Ottawa, Canada), 375–381 Passenger traffic requirements, 63–69 elevator trip, 63
service requirements, 63–64 time factor calculations, 65–69 multi-stop elevator, 67–68 probable stops determination, 68–69
two-stop elevator, 65–67
Peace Tower (Ottawa, Canada), 375–381
Peak requirements:
commercial buildings, traffic, 249
time factor calculations, passenger traffic
requirements, 65
two-way traffic, 97
Pedestrian planning considerations:
building elevating, 34–45
door arrangement, 37–39
elevator platform shape, 34–37
lighting and signals, 39–45 Penthouse floors, apartment houses, 291
People movers:
automated, future trends, 537–539 cable-driven, future trends, 537
future trends, 535–536
Performance criteria, specifying and contracting, 474–475 Performance evaluation, 519–524. See also Traffic studies
Performance standards, 457
Period interval calculation, incoming traffic, 84, 86 Personnel, on freight elevator, 333–334 Pike, Lawrence E., 134–135 Pit space requirement:
calculation of, 186–187
generally, 180–186
Platform lifts, 414
Pneumatic tube systems, 421–424 design of, 422–423
history of, 421–422
statistics, 423–424
Population, see Occupancy
Positioning of system:
arrangements, 50–61
building elevating, 45–61
commercial buildings, 253–254, 255–257
escalators, 227–229
escalators and moving walkways, 243–244
grouping of elevators, 45–50
hospitals, 311–313
institutional buildings, 306–308
residential buildings, 282–284
Power considerations, see Energy considerations Powered door-closing time, defined, 29–30 Powered door-opening time, defined, 30
Power failure:
emergency operation, machine room space
requirements, 206
machine room space requirements, 202–203
Pre-engineered elevator, economics, 493
Preliminary study, building elevating, 33 Prisons, see Jails
Private residences, 300–302. See also Residential building elevating Probable stops:
outgoing traffic calculations, 120–121
two-way traffic, interfloor traffic, 101–102 Probable stops determination, passenger traffic requirements, time factor
calculations, 68–69
Professional buildings. See also Commercial building elevating
commercial building elevating, 246, 278
service elevator, 265
Proposal bidding, specifying and contracting, 475
Public concepts, traffic studies, 508–509
Rack and pinion elevator, 390
Rail support:
building compression and, 390–392
freight elevator, 334–338
space and physical requirements, 170–171
Real-time monitoring, elevator operation and control, computer technology, 133
Rear openings, space and physical requirements, 216
Refreshment services, institutional building elevating, 322 Reliability, elevator operation and control, computer technology, 132
Reno, Jesse, 220, 221, 223
Reports, traffic studies, 525
Residence halls, 295
Residential building elevating, 281–302
   apartment houses, 288–294
   calculations, 291–294
   elevator capacity, 289–290
   garages, 291
   occupancy, 288–289
   dormitories and residence halls, 295 equipment and layout, 282–284
   features, 300
   hotels and motels, 284–288 multipurpose buildings, nonconventional elevators, 354–357
   occupancy, 281
   operation and control, 296–299
   private residences, 300–302
   senior citizen housing, 295–296
   service elevator, 285
   traffic characteristics, 281–282 Restaurants, commercial buildings, 265–266 Return on investment, economics, 486–487
Rockets, 405
Running time, incoming traffic, 77–79
Ruth system, parking garage, 411 Safety. See also Codes and standards codes, 44 counterweight safety, space and physical requirements, 215–216 escalators and moving walkways, 235–237
   maintenance and repair, 504–505
Safety devices, history of, 1–3
Saxer, Al, 352
Schedules:
   commercial buildings, traffic, 249
   delivery scheduling, specifying and contracting, 479
   elevator traffic period, building elevating, 33–34 Schindler Elevator, 162 Schools. See also Institutional building elevating classroom buildings, 317–318 laboratory building, 318 library building, 318–319
   occupancy, 305
   traffic, 306, 324
Scissor jacks, future trends, 530
Screw lifts, future trends, 529–530
Seeberger, Charles D., 221, 223 Seismic design, 402–403
Selective vertical conveyor (SVC), 424–428, 434
Senior citizen housing, 295–296. See also Residential building elevating Service and freight elevators, 327–352. See also Freight elevator freight elevator, 327–339
   considerations, 348
   design, 338–339
   garages, 346–348
   industrial plants, 342–345
   loading and unloading, 331–333
   operation, 340–342
   personnel on, 333–334
   size and capacity, 327–331
   structural requirements, 334–338
   unusual installations, 348–352
   warehouses, 345–346
   overview, 327
   service elevator, 339–342
   apartment houses, 289–290
   commercial buildings, 264–265
   considerations, 348
   generally, 339–340
   operation, 340–342
   residential buildings, 282, 285
Shipboard elevator, 386–387, 413
Shopping malls, commercial building elevating, 274–275 Shuttle elevator, economics, 492 Signal operation, operation systems, 149–150 Signals, see Lighting and signals
Silicon controlled rectifier, motion control, 139–140
Single Automatic Push-Button operation, operation systems, 149
Six-car grouping, of elevators, 54–55
Skip-stops, grouping of elevators, 50, 51
Sky lobby:
  double-deck elevator, 364
  multipurpose buildings, nonconventional elevators, 355, 357–358
Skywalks, future trends, 536–537
Smith, E. J., 361
Solid-state motor drive (SSMD), machine room ventilation requirements, 205
Solid state technology, elevator operation and control, computer technology, 132–133
Space and physical requirements, 169–218 building space, 169
elevator, 169–180
  construction tolerance, 174–180
doors, 173–174
noise, 171–172
platform and enclosure, 172–173
rail support, 170–171
elevator layouts, 206–218 basement traction machine, 207, 208, 211–215 dumbwaiters, 215
freight elevator, 207, 210, 211
  generally, 206–207
hydraulic elevator, 207, 208–209 special considerations, 215–218 elevator reactions, 191–192 escalators and moving walkways, 229–235
generally, 229–231
  layouts, 231, 233–234
  maintenance and energy considerations, 234–235 machine room space:
  emergency operation, 206
  energy considerations, 192–202
generally, 187–188
power failure, 202–203
ventilation, 203–206
overhead space:
  calculation of, 186–187
generally, 186
pit space:
  calculation of, 186–187
generally, 180–186
secondary levels, 188, 189
ventilation, 188, 190–191
Specifications, maintenance and repair, 503–504
Specifying and contracting, 471–484
  acceptance, 476–477
  approvals, 478
  bid preparation, 471
  changes and alterations, 480–481
  codes and standards, 473–474
  construction, 477–478
  Construction Specification Institute, 473 contract completion and acceptance, 481–482 contract establishment, 475–476 delivery scheduling, 479 modernization, 482–483
  negotiation, 475
  new installation service, 477 performance criteria, 474–475 proposal bidding, 475
  specifications, 471–473 temporary operation, 476 trade relationships, 480 Speed:
  building sway and wind effects, 395–398
  car ride quality, 392–395
  commercial buildings, traffic, 251–252, 253, 254
  escalators and moving walkways, 219, 225
  running time, incoming traffic, 77–79 safety codes, 44
  transfer time, incoming traffic, 77 Sports arenas:
  elevating, 321–322
  occupancy, 305. See also Institutional building elevating Spotting, incoming traffic, elevator operation, 92
Stack effect, 399–401, 404
Stage lifts, 411–413
Stalled elevator, operation systems, contingencies, 152–153 Standby power, emergency operation, 206
Sturgeon, William, 541
System monitoring, elevator operation and control, 133–134 Technology, see Computer technology Temperature:
  escalators and moving walkways, space requirements, 234–235
  machine room space requirements, 188
Temporary operation, specifying and contracting, 476
Testing standards, 457
Three-car grouping, of elevators, 53–54
Timed-out zone approach, outgoing traffic, 118
Time factor calculations (passenger traffic requirements), 65–69
multi-stop elevator, 67–68 probable stops determination, 68–69
two-stop elevator, 65–67
Tolerance, see Construction tolerance
Tote box lifts, 434–435
Track systems, 437–443
in-floor, 438–443
overhead, 437–438
Traction elevator history, 5–9 g geared, 12–18
gearless, 9–12
Trade relationships, specifying and contracting, 480
Trading floors, commercial buildings, traffic, 250–251
Traffic:
commercial buildings, 248–253. See also Commercial building elevating double-deck elevator, 362
elevator traffic period, building elevating, 33–34, 35
escalators, 225–229
hospitals, 308, 310–311, 323 incoming traffic, 71–96. See also Incoming traffic institutional building elevating, 305–308, 322–325 outgoing traffic, 117–127. See also Outgoing traffic passenger traffic requirements, 63–69.
See also Passenger traffic requirements residential buildings, 281–282, 297–299
schools, 324
two-way traffic, 97–116. See also Two-way traffic Traffic studies, 507–519. See also Performance evaluation complaint evaluation, 509
consultant role, 507
elevator performance vs. building personality, 507–508 public concepts, 508–509 reports, 525
traffic conditions evaluation, 509–519 Transfer truck elevator, 406–407
Transfer floors, commercial buildings, 254, 257–258 Transfer time:
defined, 27, 29
incoming traffic, 73, 75–77
two-way traffic, interfloor traffic, 102–103 Transit stations:
elevator-transit station, future trends, 534–535 escalators, future trends, 532–534
Turner, Davis L., 244
Two-car grouping, of elevators, 52–53
Two-stop elevator:
institutional building elevator, 322 passenger traffic requirements, time factor calculations, 65–67 Two-way traffic, 97–116. See also Traffic commercial buildings, 251 elevator operation and control, 157 elevator operation during, 107–116
generally, 107–108
heavy traffic, 112–113
light traffic, 108
moderate traffic, 108–112
waiting time for landing calls, 113–116
importance of, 97
interfloor traffic, 98–103
calculations, 100–103
calculation sample, 103–107
generally, 98
interval and waiting time, 99–100
Underwriters Laboratories (UL), testing standards, 457 Unique arrangements, positioning of system, 57–58 Unloading, freight elevator, 331–333. See also Freight elevator Up-peak, down traffic during, incoming traffic, 94–95
Up-peak zoning, incoming traffic, elevator operation, 88–91
Variable speed alternating current control systems, motion control, 140 Variable voltage, variable frequency (VVVF) systems: machine room ventilation requirements, 205
motion control, 140–141
residential buildings, 296–297
Vehicular traffic, hospitals, 311
Ventilation:
  machine room space requirements, 203–206
  space and physical requirements, 188, 190–191

Waiting time. See also Interval and waiting time elevator operation and control, computer technology, 134 interfloor traffic, elevator operation during, 113–116 passenger traffic requirements, service requirements, 63–64 positioning of system, grouping of elevators, 46–47
  residential buildings, 281

  time factor calculations, passenger traffic requirements, 66
  two-way traffic, interfloor, 99–100
  Ward-Leonard system, 8–9, 17, 139
  Warehouses, freight elevator, 345–346
  Water towers, future trends, 539
  Westinghouse Elevator Company, 155, 158, 165
  Wheelchairs, hospitals, 311
  Wheeler, George H., 221 Wind: elevator damage and, 395–398
    stack effect, 398–401

  Zoning, see Up-peak zoning