The Journal of Nursing Management is an international forum which informs and advances the discipline of nursing management and leadership. The Journal encourages scholarly debate and critical analysis resulting in a rich source of evidence which underpins and illuminates the complex and rapidly changing nature of global health care. It publishes current issues and developments in practice in the form of research papers, in-depth commentaries and analyses.

The complex and rapidly changing nature of global health care is constantly generating new challenges and questions. The Journal of Nursing Management welcomes papers from researchers, academics, practitioners, managers, and policy makers from a range of countries and backgrounds which examine these issues and contribute to the body of knowledge on international nursing management and leadership worldwide.

The Journal of Nursing Management aims to:
- Inform practitioners and researchers in nursing management and leadership
- Explore and debate current issues in nursing management and leadership
- Assess the evidence for current practice
- Develop best practice in nursing management and leadership
- Examine the impact of policy developments
- Address issues in governance, quality and safety
- The Journal publishes papers in the following areas and often presents these in ‘themed’ issues which serve as authoritative and substantive analyses of nursing management and leadership globally:
  - General Management and organisational theory and its application to nursing leadership and strategic analysis
  - Clinical management approaches, including role development
  - Quality, governance, ethical and legal issues
  - Recruitment, retention, job satisfaction and stress
  - Health policy, finance and resource allocation
  - Health information and communication technology
  - Evidence-based management and research methods
  - Organisational culture and context in the working environment
  - Patient empowerment, participation and safety

This list is not exclusive and potential contributors are referred to the Journal’s website to access past issues for more detailed lists of content.

MANUSCRIPT FORMAT AND STRUCTURE

All manuscripts submitted to Journal of Nursing Management should include:

Title Page: A Title Page must be submitted as part of the submission process and should contain the following:

- Manuscript title
- Word count (including abstract and references)
- Authors’ names, professional and academic qualifications, positions and places of work. They must all have actively contributed to the overall design and execution of the study/paper and should be listed in order of importance of their contribution
- Corresponding author address, telephone and fax numbers and email address.
- Acknowledgements: Under Acknowledgements, please specify contributors to the article other than the authors accredited. Please also include specification of the source of funding for the study and any potential conflict of interests if appropriate. Please limit this to 100 words.

Abstract: All research, review and commentary articles must include a structured abstract of 200 words. This provides a simple way of ensuring adequate detail is provided about the contents of the study or article (what, when, why, how and so-what?). For research articles please use the following headings in your structured abstract:

 Aim(s) = what was the purpose of the study?
 Background = why was this study important?
 Method(s) = a brief description of the method(s) used, including size and nature of sample.
 Results = what were the main findings?
 Conclusion(s) = what are the main conclusions and implications for practice?

Implications for Nursing Management = What are the implications for nurse managers and/or nursing management? And what does this add to current knowledge?

For review and commentary articles please use the following headings in your structured abstract:

 Aim(s) = what is the purpose of the article?
 Background = why is the article important at this time?
 Evaluation = what types of information were used and/or how were these analysed or evaluated?
 Key issues = what were the most important issues to emerge from the analysis?
 Conclusion(s) = what are the main conclusions and implications for practice?

Implications for Nursing Management = What are the implications of the article for nurse managers and/or nursing management? And what does this article add to current knowledge?

Please use published articles in the Journal of Nursing Management as exemplars. Similar headings should be used as section headings in the body of the text.

Please add up to 5 keywords after the abstract. For details of article word count limits please refer to the online version of these guidelines.

Tables, Figures and Figure Legends

Tables should only be used to clarify important points. Tables must, as far as possible, be self-explanatory. The tables should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals.

Figures: All graphs, drawings and photographs are considered as figures and should be numbered in sequence with Arabic numerals. Each figure should have a legend and all legends should be typed together on a separate sheet and numbered correspondingly. If all or parts of previously published illustrations are used, permission must be obtained from the copyright holder concerned. It is the author’s responsibility to obtain these in writing and provide copies to the Publisher.

All figures and artwork must be provided in electronic format. Please save vector graphics (e.g. line artwork) in Encapsulated Postscript Format (EPS) and bitmap files (e.g. halftones) or clinical or in vitro pictures in Tagged Image Format (TIFF). Further information can be obtained at the Journal website and at Wiley Publishing’s guidelines for illustrations: www.authorservices.wiley.com/bauthor/illustration.asp

Colour Charges: It is the policy of the Journal of Nursing Management for authors to pay the full cost for the reproduction of their colour artwork. Therefore, Wiley Publishing requires you to complete and return a colour work agreement form before your paper can be published. This form can be downloaded from http://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/journal/10.1111/(ISSN)1365-2834/homepage/JONM_SN_Sub2000_F_CoW_JONM.pdf. Any article received by Wiley Publishing with colour work will not be published until the form has been returned. If you are unable to access the internet, or are unable to download the form, please contact the Production Editor, Jenelyn Ocampo, at the following address: SPi Building, Pascor Drive, Sto. Niño, Parañaque City 1700, Manila, Philippines. Email: jonm@wiley.com

Supplementary Material: Supplementary Material, such as data sets or additional figures or tables, that will not be published in the print edition of the journal, but which will be viewable via the online edition, can be submitted. Please contact the Production Editor (jonm@wiley.com) for further details.

ACCEPTANCE OF A MANUSCRIPT FOR PUBLICATION

Copyright: If your paper is accepted, the author identified as the formal corresponding author for the paper will receive an email prompting them to login into Author Services; where via the Wiley Author Licensing Service (WALS) they will be able to complete the license agreement on behalf of all authors on the paper. The corresponding author will be presented with the Copyright Transfer Agreement (CTA) to sign. The terms and conditions of the CTA can be previewed in the samples associated with the Copyright FAQs below: http://authorservices.wiley.com/bauthor/faqs_copyright.asp

Permissions: If all or parts of previously published illustrations are used, permission must be obtained from the copyright holder concerned. It is the author’s responsibility to obtain these in writing and provide copies to the Publisher.

Proofs: The corresponding author will receive an e-mail alert containing a link to download their proof as a PDF (portable document format). Corrections must be returned to the Production Editor within 3 days of receipt.

Offprints: Authors will be provided with a free PDF file of their article after its publication in an issue. Additional hardcopy offprints may be ordered online from http://offprint.cosprinters.com/ctx/bw/main.jsp?SITE_ID=bw &FID=USER_HOME_PG. Please Email: offprint@cosprinters.com with any queries.

Author Services: For more substantial information on the services provided for authors, please see www.authorservices.wiley.com/bauthor/default.asp

Online Open: OnlineOpen is available to authors of primary research articles who wish to make their article available to non-subscribers upon publication, or whose funding agency requires grantees to archive the final version of their article. With OnlineOpen, the author, the author’s funding agency, or the author’s institution pays a fee to ensure that the article is made available to non-subscribers upon publication via Wiley Online Library, as well as deposited in the funding agency’s preferred archive. For the full list of terms and conditions, and the order form, see http://olabout.wiley.com/WileyCDA/Section/id-406241.html.

Prior to acceptance there is no requirement to inform an Editorial Office that you intend to publish your paper OnlineOpen if you do not wish to. All OnlineOpen articles are processed in the same way as any other article. They go through the journal’s standard peer-review process and will be accepted or rejected based on their own merit.
