

The Financial Management Association International and Pearson are pleased to announce the Pearson Prizes for the Best Papers in Financial Management.

FIRST PLACE

CMBS Subordination, Ratings Inflation, and Regulatory-Capital Arbitrage

Richard Stanton, University of California, Berkeley

Nancy Wallace, University of California, Berkeley

Volume #47, Spring, 2018

SECOND PLACE

Do Outside Directors with Government Experience Create Value?

Jun-Koo Kang, Nanyang Technological University in Singapore

Le Zhang, Australian National University

Volume #47, Summer, 2018

Manuscripts published in Financial Management between Autumn, 2016 and Summer, 2018 were eligible for the first-place best paper prize of $7,500 and the second-place best paper prize of $2,500.

The Financial Management Association International and Pearson are pleased to announce the Pearson Prizes for the Best Papers in Financial Management.

FIRST PLACE

The Theory and Practice of Corporate Risk Management: Evidence from the Field

Erasmus Giambona, Syracuse University
John R. Graham, Duke University
Campbell R. Harvey, Duke University
Gordon M. Bodnar, Johns Hopkins University
Volume #47, Winter, 2018

SECOND PLACE

Risk-Taking Channel of Monetary Policy

Tobias Adrian, International Monetary Fund
Arturo Estrella, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute
Hyun-Song Shin, Bank for International Settlements
Volume #48, Fall, 2019

Manuscripts published in Financial Management between Autumn, 2018 and Summer, 2020 were eligible for the first-place best paper prize of $7,500 and the second-place best paper prize of $2,500.

